BULLYING PREVENTION MONTH

WHEREAS, school bullying has become an increasingly significant problem in the United States and Virginia;
and

WHEREAS, over twenty percent of the youth in the United States are estimated to be involved in bullying each year, either as a bully or as a victim; and

WHEREAS, an estimated one hundred sixty thousand students in kindergarten through twelfth grade miss school every day due to a fear of being bullied; and

WHEREAS, bullying can take many forms, including verbal, physical, and most recently in cyberspace, and can happen in many places on and off school grounds; and

WHEREAS, it is important for Virginia parents, students, teachers, and school administrators to be aware of bullying, and to encourage discussion of the problem as a school community; and

WHEREAS, the VSBA has developed sample policies on anti-bullying to encourage positive behaviors and to eliminate bullying behaviors.

NOW, THEREFORE, the Williamsburg-James City County School Board recognizes the month of October 2026 as Bullying Prevention Month, with the intention that the issue of bullying and its prevention be discussed in our schools and classrooms during that time.

Beth Allar, Clerk of the Board

BULLYING PREVENTION MONTH

(R-19-26)

September 15, 2026

Responsible Department: Student Services

All WJCC schools recognize October as Bullying Prevention Month. A variety of activities will take place across our schools both in-person and virtually throughout the month. These activities may include:

- Bullying Prevention Spirit Week, October 19-23, 2026
- Unity Day, Wednesday, October 21, 2026 – Sponsored by the National Bullying Prevention Center, schools and communities are encouraged to wear orange to show visual solidarity against bullying. Suggested answers for why one is wearing orange include:
 - I am united for kindness, acceptance, and inclusion.
 - I want to support students experiencing bullying.
 - I care about safe and supportive schools and communities.
 - Bullying has hurt too many for too long
- Bullying Prevention classroom lessons on kindness, inclusiveness, and diversity and how to respond to bullying
- School-wide or classroom Bullying Prevention pledges
- Class discussions and/or essay writing about what unity is and why it is important
- Writing letters to lawmakers and other leaders about the importance of bullying prevention efforts
- Discussion about appropriate social media etiquette and cyberbullying
- Morning announcements reviewing expectations on how to respond to bullying
- Display of student created anti-bullying posters
- Creation of Unity Chains, Unity Trees, Unity Murals or other art projects
- Door decorating competitions
- Post via WJCC social media facts and images about bullying prevention
- Share orange photos to social media using #UnityDay2026 and #WeAreWJCC
- Anti-Bullying Choice Board activities for teachers to use with students
- Showcase books about unity/acceptance/tolerance
- Classroom or school-wide celebrations to recognize acts of kindness, inclusion, acceptance, etc.
